BOLOGNA
November 10, 2025

9:00 AM – 1:00 PM, Room 2

*Department of Agricultural and Food Sciences,
Viale Giuseppe Fanin 40-50*

The workshop will be held in English

Ready for the Food Systems Revolution?

Sustainability and innovation from farm to fork with the PNRR Agritech and OnFoods projects

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE

Workshop mainly addressed to students enrolled in the following Master's Degree programs:

- International Horticultural Science
- Food Safety and Food Risk Management
- Precise and Sustainable Agriculture
- Sustainable Food System Management

Registration is also open to third-year Bachelor's students and to students from other degree programs who are attending courses at DISTAL.

Participants, guided by innovation coaches, will work in teams on a real challenge emerging from the OnFoods and Agritech projects. Using design thinking methodologies, visual tools, and rapid prototyping techniques, they will develop innovative solutions for the future of food systems.

With its dynamic and hands-on format, the workshop aims to strengthen the connection between academic learning and advanced research, spark creativity, and inspire new generations to imagine more sustainable agricultural and food systems.
